2580 – Mayo Clinic Health System – An appeal regarding the requirement that wall signs may be placed on no more than two separate walls of a building at 232 3rd St N, La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Farmer motioned to grant the variance for the sign on the wall at 232 3rd St. N. The sign ordinance never anticipated the building occupying a whole lot, which really is the unique issue. There was no testimony that there is any harm to the public interest by allowing the sign. The hardship is, if we didn't grant the variance, there would be people walking around outside of the building looking for express care, as an example.

Konradt seconded.

Motion carried.
