Subject: Clown Camp/Venardos Circus/All Abilities Trane Park

Hello Patti,

Thank you for your time yesterday afternoon. I met with Michael Ranscht, The Viterbo University Fine Arts Center Director, and Viterbo has approved the Venardos Broadway Circus being set up in the campus courtyard. The tentative plan is for Venardos Circus to do a run of shows June 9-16, 2018. Clown Camp will be held at Viterbo June 10-15 and our participants (100 registrants) will work with the show. My wife (Brenda) and I produce/direct the Clown Camp program and rent the Viterbo facilities for the program.

Here is the website for the Venardos Circus www.venardoscircus.com. As I had mentioned in our conversation, I am friends with the show's producer, Kevin Venardos. We both toured with Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus and now tour shows across the United States.

You can learn more about CLOWN CAMP 2018 @ www.regonline.com/clowncamp

Pending us/Clown Camp signing an agreement with Venardos Circus, I would appreciate the opportunity to meet with a Parks Department representative and the Parks Commission to explain and seek support for our event to benefit the All Abilities Trane Park fund.

Thank you,
Kenny

The Little Circus That Could

The Venardos Circus held it's first performance in 2014 at the L.A. County Fair in Pomona, CA.

Created by former Ringling Bros. Ringmaster Kevin Venardos, the show featured a small cast of artists in a kind of Circus-Broadway Musical. It was just a little Circus, but it had great BIG dreams.

In the years since, Venardos Circus has grown into a living example of the power of dreams, and proudly continues the American Circus tradition for a new generation, bringing joy to people everywhere.
