Tim, I'm sure you know this already but please add my name to those that support allocating planning dollars for a new museum.

We are the only city our size that does not have a public museum to show off all of our history. We have such a rich history in railroad, steamboats, lumber, brewing, sports, fishing, and even air transportation. We have thousands of collectables in storage that most of the public has never seen.

Everyone knows that museum's are also one of the top tourist attractions. Let's take advantage of that.

Let's git 'er dun,

Pat Stephens
