

Will reduce the quality of life and ultimately the value of property within this area.

I disagree that there is a need for this store because we are in a "food desert." There is a Costco Convenience store at 18th & Jackson in an area zoned for business while the Walgreens at West and Jackson provides a wide choice of foods and snacks such as those offered at a convenience store.