I have no objection to the vision and future for this historic home, as proposed by its prospective (and hopeful) owners. Having lived in, worked on and loved an great old lady (1885), I know what it takes to keep a vintage home up to date and comfortable. I like the repurposing envisioned by the Texans whose big idea is to keep 1419 maintained and accessible to all who could enjoy its interior splendor. I look forward to welcoming them and their high-end guests to the neighborhood.
