I have a lot of unhappy homeowners and we can all start hollering and getting upset (which some are capable of) but respectfully:

That result was completely expected. That would be politics 101. Delay. The police chief said this has been going on since 2005, what are we going to accomplish in 60 days we clearly haven't accomplished in 20 years. The only thing 60 days means is the problem in that area is only going to get bigger and more concerning. If you think more folks aren't going to come, you are dead wrong. Then how do you deal with it? It will take 5 minutes to verify the parcel numbers.....

My hope is they don't burn the place down, some elderly person doesn't get beat up walking the trail, some college girl doesn't get raped running the trail. I look forward to you all volunteering for the clean up - don't pawn it off on the lower paid park & rec staff, they don't deserve that.
