It's possible. The Mayor may say before they convene in closed. You would stay on the live feed and if the Council reconvenes in open session, we would log back in to this same online meeting room.

Nikki is there a vote happening after the closed session? If so, do we just stay on the live feed and wait for the closed session to end?

I am not able to be in person. I would just like to say that it would have been nice to have more transparency and more notice from the City on such a major decision.
