Some parts of the house will be reconstructed for the display and use for the museum especially the back or West and East side of building.
Why this House?

It is Central to La Crosse, small for the suitable of the family need especially financially and location.

It is very basic history and museum and the blacksmith will not noise to neighbor. The small shop will use to make others tools and equipments to display at the museum but frame good - in door use so noise and traffic will not and issue but we hope the project can also upgrade the building and new history in the city.

Almost forgot, we were Vietnamese refugee from Laos and many became United States Citizen now. Our family are varies from Laotian, Hmong, Yao, and other small minorities from Laos that settled in the La Crosse area. The Thai Lue - group was so popular in Southeast Asia in South west corner of China and Northern Laos - The Thulues (12) Kingdom of Lue.

Sorry for the inconvenience of writing and short time due to the closed many resources.
