A CHARTER ORDINANCE to create Section 19 of Appendix A of the Code of Ordinances of the City of La Crosse creating the position, duties and responsibilities of the Office of the City Administrator and removing duties from the Office of the Mayor.

The COMMON COUNCIL of the City of La Crosse do ordain as follows:

I recall the last Mayor(Mr Johnsrud wanted this and also an ambulance service!!!) Let me see, where did he go, after we did not vote him
In again? Johnson creek, wi?
We need less government, lower taxes, people with a brain, common sense, maybe normal citizens working for the people. This liberalism
Does not seem to be working!!? We had the coulee region humane society, picking up lost pets. Now we have a woman ($80.000) added,
A person watching the homeless ($140.000) I think there may be another person helping Mr sampson? The police helping the dog catcher??
Where does this stop?? More taxex, more construction, more bike lanes, I have yet to see those bike lanes filled with riders? Maybe
The high schoolers should start riding there bikes, instead of cars.

Thank you

Attention Mitch and City Council,

This email is to oppose you voting and hiring of a City Administrator. If the Mayor cannot handle the duties of his position that has been this way for many years then I suggest he resign and we get another vote to get another Mayor who can do the work. Many companies are working with less and many people are doing more in their positions. Our city must do the same. I also do not believe we are in the financial status to be hiring for a City Administrator. also this position would now be hired and not able to be voted in by the people. That takes the voice away from the tax payers. Always remember the tax payer of this city is where you get the money from and we need to keep it this way. I sure hope others in this community are giving you their voice on this issue and we keep it the way it is.

Thank you,
Baylee,
A concerned citizen,

Andrea,

All is well here on the east side of the state.

I know this is getting to you a little later than you wanted so I am not sure if it will be helpful now or not.

One of the biggest pros of an administrator is consistency. Regardless of elections, you have a leader within the organization that can provide continuation of vision while elected officials change. The other big advantage is you have a boss that is over department heads (outside of elected positions) that can address problems with individual department heads and between department heads. The budget process was also easier with an administrator because he/she has the final say on what is presented to council. This simplified the process greatly.

On the flip side, one of the largest challenges is when the Mayor and Administrator do not agree. Then as a department head it can be difficult to navigate when you are receiving conflicting direction. At a minimum you need to educate the council and mayor on their roles and ultimately everyone needs to understand that employees report to the administrator and not elected officials. If you don't have a strong person in the administrator role, this would be very difficult to navigate.

Those are some high level thoughts. If you want more, let me know.

Subject: RE: City Administrator/Mayor

Benefits of an Administrator versus Mayor

- I think for La Crosse, if the Department Heads were under the management of the City Administrator, they (City Administrator) could play a positive role to ensure departments were consistently working together. I would definitely recommend all departments are under the management and oversight of the administrator or manager.
- A good city administrator focuses in on the vision of Council and Mayor and then can ensure various departments are able to be given the resources and authority to coordinate the vision and work together on the vision. There can be competing priorities for each department, so they have a role in moving forward with the right option and bringing staff consensus. They ensure everyone is “rowing in the same direction”.
- One major role they have is oversight on personnel and management issues for department heads. Those can be challenging issues at times. Our policy makers are very thankful not to have a role in that. I take in any complaints about staff and manage those.
- Focus on employee engagement and addressing employee concerns by bringing in background in organizational leadership. Many city administrators, including myself, focus on time making sure their department heads receive leadership training.
- The system helps the Mayor and Council to be able to focus on policy direction.
- The professionalized management and background in municipal governance and budgets can be helpful. This position can strategize around how to bring resources to the table to advance the policy makers goals and with a strong background in budgeting and financial planning, can help them realize those goals.
- We worked on a strategic plan together my first year, mission statement, and so we have a pretty clear path and agreement on their strategic goals and measure progress against the goals. Every budget year, we look at the strategic plan and progress. That’s sets some benchmarks to measure success for Council and the Administrator. <https://www.wabasha.org/strategicplan/>
- Mayors still play an important role in advancing projects important to them or championing an idea and then having the City Administrator execute the idea.
- Council has the option to provide a City Administrator annual performance reviews and also has the option to hire/fire this individual with a majority vote. This ensures accountability to Council.

The benefits of the Mayor for La Crosse that I see are that I think the Mayor of La Crosse is compensated at a much lower rate than a traditional administrator. I do think the current system in La Crosse does correctly put a lot of leadership capacity in the hands of individual departments. For example, issues that I might handle in my current role, are done by HR Director or Finance Director in La Crosse. I do think the role of “Mayor” brings weight to any conversation. La Crosse has a strong tradition of Mayoral leadership. I think a lot of the effectiveness of either system, can also depend on the individual.

I am sure it’s going to be a good discussion!

Kind Regards,

Mitch;

I am of the opinion that a City Administrator is best for larger municipalities as compared to those with just an elected Mayor. My position is based upon my experience. I was a municipal attorney for 23 years prior to being elected as Waukesha's Mayor. I have been a student of local government for most of my life. I have been Mayor of Waukesha for more than 10 years. There are times I wish I was a "Strong" Mayor, for my own selfish purposes. I truly believe however that the "Weak" Mayor/City Administrator model is what works best for the wellbeing and continuity of a city over time. (I am leaving out any comments regarding the City Manager form of government).

The two main reasons I have this opinion is that a City Administrator is insurance that professionalism and expertise in running the city has a high baseline at all times. The other main reason is that the Common Council generally will have its policy decisions followed more directly if there is a City Administrator/Mayor than if there is just an elected Mayor (without any City Administrator).

Continued professionalism and expertise are essential for a city to thrive. Elected Mayors can be good or bad. With a good Mayor, the city can thrive and be run professionally without any major problems. I recognize that many elected Mayors have the skills needed to run a large operation with many employees and large budgets. Often however, the elected Mayor lacks some (or all) of the needed skills to direct a large number of employees and run a complex and large organization. There are many examples where a Mayor was elected that did not have professionalism or expertise. At some point, I think every municipality makes the wrong choice as to whether it elected the best person for the job. We can all recall situations where the elected Mayor was a continual detriment to the well being of the community. If there is an Administrator, the bad Mayor problem is not cured but the overall damages to the integrity and reputation of the city are minimized because there is a professional individual with the authority to continue running the city day to day. Without a City Administrator, if there is a Mayor that actively creates detrimental issues, the Common Council should step in to take over more responsibility of the day to day running of the city. This is extremely difficult both procedurally and in practice. The Common Council needs to publicly step in and remove aspects of the authority of the Mayor. Besides figuring out how to accomplish this, it takes time. While this is occurring, the administration of the city is in a free fall. It can then take years for the city to get back on track. If there is a City Administrator, the process of blunting the bad actions of an incompetent Mayor are much easier and the fallout will never be as severe.

I also am a firm believer that the ultimate policy maker for municipalities is the majority vote of the Common Council. Whether a Mayor is good or bad, if there is a City Administrator, the policy decisions of the Common Council are more efficiently carried out if there is a City Administrator. Without a City Administrator, the Mayor is in charge of carrying out the Common Council policy decisions. If the Mayor does not agree with the majority decision on policy decisions, the stand alone Mayor is easily able to slow walk any decision he/she disagrees with. The Mayor can pretty much ignore the Common Counsel policy decisions until he/she is called out on it. Even then, the Mayor can create impediments to the will of the Common Counsel almost indefinitely. When there is a City Administrator, the policy decisions of the Common Council will be followed. The City Administrator answers to the Common Council, not the Mayor.

Let me know if you want to discuss this further. If any of your Alders want to talk to me about this, I will be happy to make that happen.

Hey Shawn,

Hope things are going well for you in Waukesha. Really appreciated your presentation in Milwaukee and was inspired to do a five-year budget projection of my own. Man, that makes everything seem really bleak.

Also hoping you can help me with something. I will have an ordinance change in front of the city council in a couple of weeks to add a city administrator. Currently, the plan is to maintain the mayor as a full-time position. One of the things I have been asked is how the role of mayor changes with an administrator in place and whether having a full-time mayor under the new leadership structure makes sense. Since you are one of just a few with that form of government, I was hoping I could get some sort of short overview/testimonial from you that I can share with a council executive meeting for a meeting on Monday.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Members of the Common Council –

My name is Bob Gollnik, Executive Director of the La Crosse Area Planning Committee (LAPC), and a transportation planner with over 20 years of experience working across the United States. Our agency focuses on regional transportation planning for the La Crosse-La Crescent area, with the City of La Crosse as our largest member. Our policy board consists of the highest elected officials from 10 area member communities and the La Crosse County Board Chair. We also have two committees that involve multiple City of La Crosse technical staff.

Since becoming Director in 2023, I've had the privilege of working with Mayor Reynolds, who has been an excellent collaborator, fostering many conversations that have benefitted our regional efforts. His leadership and vision has highlighted the importance of professional city management, regardless of who holds office. I agree with Mayor Reynolds that a City Administrator in La Crosse is perhaps more urgent than ever, and long overdue. Cities of La Crosse's size—and even smaller municipalities—commonly have this role to ensure consistent, effective governance. While many points have been outlined for the council, I would like to emphasize a few key areas most relevant to our work and the benefits a City Administrator could bring to La Crosse's growth and development:

1. Professional Leadership and Continuity: A city administrator can provide expert leadership to navigate La Crosse's unique opportunities, balancing natural resources like the Mississippi River with sustainable urban growth and other pressing issues. With experience working with public agencies across the area (and state), we see how professional management leads to effective decision-making and sustainable development. An Administrator also provides continuity among departments and external collaborations despite political seasons.
2. Efficient Resource Allocation: In cities across the U.S., I've observed that city administrators can excel in maximizing public resources. La Crosse, with its focus on sustainability and community-driven initiatives, would benefit from a administrator who could strategically direct tax dollars, grants, and operational resources among departments and toward high-impact projects such as infrastructure upgrades, housing, and public safety.
3. Policy Implementation: La Crosse's recent and ambitious plans—ranging from riverfront development to expanding transit options—require dedicated oversight. A city administrator could streamline the execution of these plans, ensuring they are carried out efficiently and in line with the city's long-term visions.
4. Day-to-Day Operations: Managing the complexities of La Crosse, including public safety, environmental challenges like flooding, and a vibrant tourism sector, requires dedicated administrative focus. A city administrator could handle these operational details, freeing the mayor and council to prioritize strategic policy decisions and community engagement.

5. Long-Term Planning: Drawing on state and national best practices, a city administrator would help guide La Crosse through strategic growth, including economic development, affordable housing, homelessness concerns, and sustainability. This role would be crucial in planning for the city's future while maintaining a high quality of life for current residents.
6. Non-Partisan Leadership: As someone with experience working in diverse political environments, I have seen how a city administrator's non-partisan role ensures that decisions are based on professional expertise and community needs rather than political cycles. La Crosse could benefit from this continuity in leadership. The administrator also serves as a valuable resource in acclimating new administrations to key processes and initiatives within the city.
7. Improved City Council Functionality: A city administrator would allow La Crosse's city council to focus on legislation and community engagement, ensuring that administrative functions, such as budgeting and staff management, are professionally handled.
8. Crisis Management: From flooding to economic shifts to tourism-related events, La Crosse faces its share of challenges. Having observed city administrators in similar cities, their ability to coordinate rapid, efficient responses in times of crisis ensures better protection for residents and businesses.
9. Community Engagement: City administrators in other regions have proven effective at fostering meaningful dialogue between residents, businesses, and local governments. La Crosse, with its strong community identity, would benefit from a city administrator who facilitates this engagement, ensuring that public input drives decision-making.
10. Accountability and Performance: The city administrator is accountable to the council and public, La Crosse would see greater transparency and measurable performance in city operations and within city departments. This structure ensures that goals are met and that public trust remains strong.

I believe the role of a City Administrator would significantly enhance La Crosse's governance, providing stability and professional management to address the city's current and future needs while expanding collaborative opportunities with regional partners like us.

Please contact me if any of you would like to discuss further, and I strongly encourage you to consider this important ordinance.

Sincerely,

Bob Gollnik

Good morning City Council members! Please see the forwarded message below.

I saw a great LTE in the Tribune this morning from an Aron Newberry that I'll steal a quote from: "This investment in professional management will pay dividends by creating a more efficient, stable, and prosperous community for all La Crosse residents."

When I was on the City Council in my hometown, a community in southeastern Minnesota of under 4k people, I assumed having a City Administrator was the norm. Even though we had our political differences (as a healthy democracy should), having this leadership position allowed City business to run much more smoothly, and as Aron said, allowed elected officials to focus on long-term vision.

I hope you'll support this at J+A tonight. Thanks for all you do!

Good afternoon Kristen,

I am writing to express my full support for creating a City Administrator position. I appreciated the comprehensive breakdown of the "rationale" on the City website, too.

As a newly elected supervisor on the La Crosse County Board, I've really enjoyed getting to know our Admin Jane Klekamp and to see how the flow of communication between department heads to her to the Board works. La Crosse County also has the opportunity to work collaboratively with the City on the Pathways Home plan, and you're well aware of the road bumps we've recently had to navigate.

I think an admin in La Crosse would be a huge benefit to the City. Perhaps with more consistency the Mayor's job would be less overwhelming from the start of onboarding and orientation. My small hometown in southeastern Minnesota has had an admin for years, and when I was on Pine Island City Council from 2018 to 2022 I saw firsthand how having an admin kept things internally organized so externally we could provide the best services to our community members.

Hope you're doing well and staying safe. Thanks for all you do.

I vote NO to a city administrator. However, I believe the decision is a done deal and it will happen regardless the wishes of the citizens.

The Mayor will then become a figurehead and his duties reduced to groundbreaking and ribbon cutting ceremonies. The Mayor's salary should then become a part time position with a substantial reduction in pay.

To Whom it may concern,

It seems to me that this position is another costly redundancy, especially at a time when we are cutting services like Libraries and Swimming pools.. Either have a City Administrator or a Mayor-not both. Also if we hire an administrator- combine it with any similar positions involving communications public and interdepartmental. Maybe then someone will oversee departments calling citizens back in a timely fashion.

Good Afternoon

My feelings on the new City Managers position is a positive, as I believe La Crosse has grown to a size where people who have ran, and won for Mayor don't have the knowledge, and background to manage a city of our size. I also believe the Mayors position should be a position of being a tie breaker for the Common Council, and a Ambassador for the City of La Crosse only . If the average salary of a City Manager is around 185,000.00, and the current Mayor is at 77,000.00, I believe the Mayor's position being non managerial should be shaved to 50,000.00, with an expense account of 25,000.00 as an Ambassador for the City, so he can ride in all the area parades, and festivals.

As La Crosse continues to grow, it's time to consider the benefits of hiring a professional city administrator to manage day-to-day operations and ensure efficient, transparent governance. Cities and counties nationwide, big and small, including local examples like the city of Onalaska and Trempealeau County, have successfully hired administrators to streamline services, improve accountability and save taxpayer money.

A city administrator brings professional expertise in public finance, urban planning and service coordination — skills critical to our community's sustainable growth. This role would allow our elected officials to focus on leadership and long-term vision while ensuring city operations run smoothly and effectively.

This model would benefit local businesses, community organizations and residents alike. Supporters include small business owners, the chamber of commerce, neighborhood associations and nonprofit groups that recognize the value of consistent, professional management. A city administrator can help us attract investment, improve infrastructure and provide better services to residents without the political pressures that often complicate decision-making. This investment in professional management will pay dividends by creating a more efficient, stable, and prosperous community for all La Crosse residents.

Vote Yes on approving a City Administrator position.

Sincerely,

Aron Newberry

As a former personnel director for the city, I would agree that a City Administrator would be appropriate for a city the size of La Crosse provided a well qualified professional is selected. The Administrator must be of course kept free from the political arena with removal for cause only.

City of La Crosse
Common Council

La Crosse, WI 54601

To Whom It May Concern,

Please accept this letter in support of the charter ordinance to create section 19 of Appendix A of the Code of Ordinances of the City of La Crosse creating the position, duties and responsibilities of the Office of the City Administrator and removing duties from the Office of the Mayor.

Many of the core issues our community faces—both the challenges and the opportunities—are long-term issues. These are conditions we will face for decades, not months or even years. A community our size needs operational guidance and certainty to advance addressing these issues as directed by the elected Council and the Mayor. The creation of a City Administrator position would allow for continuity in daily operations of the city and would bring expertise and professional training in the operations of critical services in local government including emergency services, public safety, intergovernmental relations, and community development. A City Administrator has the potential to further the efficiency and effectiveness of services in the City of La Crosse, allowing for continued leadership in the region and beyond. La Crosse is poised to continue its rise as a premier community in the Upper Midwest. Implementing a full-time City Administrator will help advance that rise, allowing our elected leaders to focus on vision and policy while the Administrator manages operations. This will help city government be even more responsive to all citizens.

Gundersen Health System—becoming Emplify Health—experiences firsthand many ways municipal services and operations of the City of La Crosse impact our patients, staff, and the community. I appreciate your thoughtful attention to this request and ask you to support and advance this proposal. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Heather Schimmers

Dear City Council Members,

I strongly support approval of item 24-1287 to hire an administrator for the city of La Crosse. A professional with expertise in planning, finance, and service coordination will be a strong support for our department heads and will save taxpayer money. I also support continuing our mayoral position - full time or part time to be determined in the future.

Aaron Newberry's recent letter to the La Crosse Tribune succinctly states my views.
Please support the hiring of a city administrator.

Thank you for your service to the citizens of La Crosse.

Dear Mayor and Common Council,

RE: Professionally trained and experienced Administrator

I am writing this letter to underscore the crucial need for a professional Administrator in the City of La Crosse. The role of an Administrator is pivotal in ensuring the smooth functioning of the city's operations. Below, I present my thoughts and comments on this matter.

No matter the organization, be it a non-profit, educational institution, governmental body, small business, or corporate enterprise, many factors contribute to the organization's health. The organization's health allows for adaption to change, creates the culture, determines production outputs, maximizes allocation of financial resources, and creates the greatest service for the customer. While there are many factors in creating healthy organizations, three main factors are Leadership, Structure, and Professional Skill Requirements. Working on your organizational health is a pursuit in which improvement always exists, change is constantly necessary, and creating the proper focus is absolute. Like many of you working in various roles in different types of organizations, I have learned to ask a fundamental question with both little issues, conflict resolution, and significant decisions that question is "What does great look like?" Once "great" is defined, putting the pieces to pursue that objective becomes relatively easy. From my vantage point of view, "What does great look like?" for the City of La Crosse operations platform, it is easy to define that our city has a structural issue that causes a skills gap. Below, I will define some of these issues from my perspective, with the caveat that there is no silver bullet to improving an organization. It is constantly focused on intentional work "on" the organization versus working "in" the organization. We must recognize these issues and work towards change and improvement in our city's operations.

In the case of a city, the vision is the will of the people (which in written form is all the plans sitting on the shelves, some of which may be lacking implementation); the leadership is based on whom they choose to represent them. We choose to have an elected administrator (mayor) handling day-to-day operations; we elect a new administrator every 6.2 years since Mayor Medinger was in office. Then, we expect this person to have all the skills required to administer the city's business. I often joke that every 6.2 years, the whole City of La Crosse gets on a giant airplane, then we elect one of us as our pilot and hope like heck they have enough skill to get it off the ground and, more importantly, land the plane with most of us surviving. The probability of electing someone with the skills required to manage the complexity of a city is as close to zero as you can get. To make matters worse, this "newly elected administrator" manages the city's day-to-day operations but has zero authority to get the work done, as that lies with our common council. Fundamentally, our structure creates an administrator without professional skill, then provides a work environment in which they have no authority. This is not what great looks like. We need a collaborative effort to address these issues and create a better future for our city.

Having worked in many communities, my experience in working with communities with a professional Administration there are many benefits. Three recent projects we have worked on are as follows:

1. Professional administrators implement plans effectively. We did a $18 million project approximately three years ago; we were selected via RFP in mid-April. By August 1st, we had completed all entitlements, and excavators were moving dirt for the project. Our team spent less than 4 hours in public meetings. This project also included approximately $1M in public sector projects that we completed in our scope of work. How? The administrator managed the process with professional skill, and the whole team at the city knew their marching orders and timeline for getting work done. This administrator's plans were not on a shelf; the team was implementing the people's plans, and the council was exceptionally well informed and received updates on the process; they knew the city business. This administrator knew the city economics so well that they provided us with the market rate rent projection with examples; additionally, due to the public-private partnership, they also knew the support needed to make the project work. This administrator and staff "knew their numbers." We are starting another project in the community in 2025. This community is the benchmark for what does great look like.

2. On September 16th, we broke ground on a $32 million public-private partnership, including a new public library, community center, and 78 residential units. This collaborative project included many partners, including the school district, senior center, library board, several community members, vision groups, and our development team. This comprehensive project with significant deal structure complexity falls on the skill of one person, a first-time city administrator who worked his way up the ladder and was professionally educated and trained. The city administrator has managed this process with timelines and specifics, laid out steps to finish, facilitated vital community input, and managed the outside professional services required for a successful project. The mayor and council were active in this project's public meetings, engaged in the vetting process, and, most importantly, championed this great new addition to the community's urban core and its lasting impact. In La Crosse, we closed libraries.
3. The final project will be very familiar. An experienced administrator led it at the time, taking place in the core of the City of La Crosse. At the time of construction, it was one of the larger dollar-volume projects in the city's core. This project was led by the County Administrator and included a county administration building, Belle Square Block, and The Hub on the 6th. These three projects changed our urban core and turned parking lots into residential housing and business use, converting a minimally used bank building and repurposing it for county offices and turning an asbestos-infused office building to be repurposed for housing, which includes condos. The role of the administrator was critical; I think you would be hard-pressed to "elect" the required professional skill needed to put this project together.

Other strategic differences between our current structure and that of a city administrator, from my experience, are as follows:

1. Having a trained professional administer the duties associated with the day-to-day management of a city allows elected officials to be more impactful in their service to the community. An effective administrator will provide thoughtful expertise, excellent communication, good training, and a comprehensive approach to supporting the vision of the elected officials/community, which causes and empowers more of the people's vision to be done. An administrator managing day-to-day details strengthens the voice of the people.
2. The number of people willing to run for office will increase as it will not be a full-time job. I appreciate the work our current and past council have put into running our city, but let's face it, it is a considerable time commitment that most people can't do. This time commitment is a prime example of structural deficiency in the city operations. I serve on non-profit boards, but only if they have paid professional staff, which allows me to contribute to my area of expertise without an extra full-time or part-time job.

3. A professional administrator will create an environment where all department heads can focus on the production needed to complete the community's vision with the authority to make necessary changes. Currently, our mayor has responsibilities/duties to perform. Still, the reality is the council manages those department heads, and the authority to replace department heads lies in the hands of the council, which creates a work environment in which a department head does not have to listen to our weak mayor. We have a lot of excellent department heads in the city; we also have department heads who choose not to follow the direction of the Mayor, as I have witnessed over the years. In essence, our mayor has responsibility with no authority, which is a broken operating platform, leading to a workplace that is less than desirable. With candor, our workforce deserves a trained, professional, and competent supervisor.
4. Communities need capital from the private sector to complete projects and facilitate economic development. In essence, our community is competing with other communities for that capital. I recently spoke at the Economic Development Association of Minnesota Summer Conference. After the presentation, I met several professional staff and administrators working to move their communities forward; I did not meet a single mayor. They are not even in the game.
5. Our current structure creates a void in leadership in day-to-day operations as our typical modern-day mayor's tenure is 6.2 years; the first half or more of their tenure is just figuring out the job and developing professional skills. When you have this void in leadership, it creates an environment of a de facto administrator. For many years of my early career, this role was served by our Director of Planning, Larry Kirch. Larry, in essence, served as a City Administrator. I don't think he asked to be in the role; he was just willing to do the work and filled the void the best he could.
6. By having a professionally trained Administrator, the mayor can more effectively lead in implementing the people's vision. For a couple of reasons, but typically, in most organizations, the visionary and implementer are not the same person, and the skills required are different. Let the Mayor be the champion voice and visionary of the people's will. Let a qualified, trained, and professional Administrator excel in the operations and implementation of the people's business.
7. Regarding the cost of this new position, the cost is what you will pay for an administrator. You will get the value by fixing the broken operating platform. A simple 1% savings in efficiency in a 75-million-dollar budget will more than pay for this position, but the real value lies in unrealized opportunity cost. To see this in action, what was the net benefit of new tax revenue, homes created, and economic impact in example 3 above?

I could continue regarding the value and benefits of a city administrator in creating a healthy organization focusing on Leadership, Structure, and Professional Skills. But I will end by saying that I believe this decision is the most critical to come before the council during my time working in the city. Now is the time to act and work "on" the structural problems within the city by hiring a city administrator to implement the vision created by our elected body.

As always, if I can help in any way, I will. Thank you for reading this letter. I am cheering you on in this decision.

The considered salary of the possible City Administrator for the City of La Crosse is more than DOUBLE that of the Elected, publicly chosen Mayor of La Crosse, Wisconsin.
It is time for the La Crosse City Council to make reasonable and acceptable decisions for non-elected persons of POWER!

I am in favor of a city administrator. The mayor's race in the recent years has been merely a popularity contest with most being unqualified and unable to meet the many needs of our city. Once elected we discover the inadequacies of the mayor and are unable to remedy it until next election cycle. I don't see why we should have both. Perhaps so the mayor can be a meet and great and ceremonial head. If we have both then the mayor's salary should be decreased to help defray the administrator's salary and the mayor would have fewer responsibilities. We are at a crucial point in the survival of the quality of our city. It is very difficult to compete with our neighboring cities in many categories and we need an intelligent and motivating leader. Perhaps a city administrator is an answer.

RE: Draft Hiring Plan for City Administrator

The Hiring Team:

To properly facilitate the hiring process of City Administrator, it is the Director of Human Resources recommendation that the hiring process is facilitated by a team referred to as the City Administrator Search Team with two sub teams: (1) the core team and (2) the selection team. The core team's role is to manage the logistics of the process which includes outreach planning, time-lining, crafting position advertisements, etc. The members of the core team would be members of the Human Resources department and the recruitment firm.

The selection team's role will be to participate in the screening process (i.e. resume review, virtual interview, in-person interviews and any other necessary subsequent interviews or public listening sessions). This team will be responsible for the final candidate selection.

The City Administrator Search Team will consist of at least 6 members. To ensure we have fair representation in the selection process, the selection team will be at least one (1) Finance and Personnel Committee member, at least one (1) Executive Committee member, the Mayor, at least two (2) department heads and the Director of Human Resources.

Announcing the Position:

With the help and partnership of an executive recruitment firm, the position will be announced via numerous sources to ensure that a qualified, diverse pool of applicants is reached.

The Core Team will announce and advertise the position via the following channels:

- Recruitment firm reaching out to individuals and organizations on an outreach list.
- Social media (Facebook, LinkedIn, etc.)
- Wisconsin City/County Management Association job board
- Specialized mail advertising by recruitment firm
- City's website
- Governmentjobs.com job board
- Any other locations recommended by the executive recruitment firm

The core team will monitor how frequently the job opening pages are visited and if we become concerned that we are not generating enough interest in the position, we will re-evaluate our approach and/or extend the application window.

Screening the Candidates:

The Director of Human Resources will input all applicants into a tracking spreadsheet. The tracking spreadsheet will include a list of desired and required competencies that the screening team will use to review resumes and cover letters. The screening team will review all cover letters, resumes and key information about each candidate in the tracking sheet. Candidates will be rated red/yellow/green on how well they match the competencies listed in the job description/ordinance.

The screening team will have a virtual interview with all candidates that have been classified as green. Candidates classified as yellow will be revisited if we have any concerns about the strength of the green candidate pool. Candidates in the red pool will be sent regret notices.

Currently, the Director of Human Resources is anticipating at least two in-person interviews with the selection committee. Although this is subject to change based on how the interviews progress and if there is a need for further clarification from any candidate or the entire Common Council would like to host a special meeting and interview the candidate(s).

I vote NO to a city administrator. However, I believe the decision is a done deal and it will happen regardless the wishes of the citizens.

The Mayor will then become a figurehead and his duties reduced to groundbreaking and ribbon cutting ceremonies.

The Mayor's salary should then become a part time position with a substantial reduction in pay.

I am not in favor of adding a city administrator. We don't need both a mayor and city administrator. Have one or the other not both.

Dear Mx. Schadeberg and Council Members,

I am writing as a citizen residing at 1715 Barnabee Rd in La Crosse, WI, to express my support of adding a public administrator into the La Crosse's City Government. My personal and professional experience with the City of La Crosse has provided many opportunities to see where this position would benefit the City and its citizens. There are a number of silos that I have experienced between the various departments and depending on who you talk to at the City, you may get somewhat different answers or not be made aware of other resources available. Having someone with the daily oversight and authority to project manage the various departments in alignment with the goals set by the Mayor and Council would create efficiencies both within and across departments and externally with partner organizations.

I understand this can feel like a tremendous change and budget update but this is one of those moves that will allow for positive growth and will undoubtedly bring new opportunities as well as cost savings from the success of having a qualified administrator keeping the beat for everyone to work in tandem instead of against each other. Many other cities have shown what a successful working relationship can be with a city administrator, mayor and council, and I believe La Crosse is in a great position to see these benefits as well.

I'm happy to speak more about my experiences, and I encourage the City to support this new position from the mindset of an opportunity for growth.

Thank you,

Anna Sprague

Good evening,

I am writing in support of creating a city administrator position for La Crosse. A municipality of our size maintains a considerable workforce across numerous departments that requires greater coordination for day-to-day operations than we currently experience.

As an elected political official, the mayor is in the position to have more direction in policy and working with the common council. Individuals elected to the role of mayor often have no background in public administration, or even business administration, whereas a qualified City Administrator candidate would bring that experience directly to bear on the work of the city. An administrator free from the political process can provide consistency and efficiency in daily operations, provide more complete information and timely information to aid the mayor and council, and improve services for the entire community.

I believe the proposal is a good idea that would bring much needed support to our city employees, find and create efficiencies in the city's operations, and provide consistency among personnel changes in the common council and mayor's office.

Thank you,

Trevor Sprague

To Whom It May Concern:

I led the City of La Crosse Human Resources Department for 5 years. After the conclusion of my first year in my position, the Mayor at that time, Tim Kabat, asked me to write a summary of my first year and provide any thoughts I had about how the City could do things more efficiently. My first suggestion was to add a City Administrator position. My rationale for this addition was the position would take the politics out of managing the operations of the city and it would help it run more effectively and efficiently.

The comparison I made at the time was to envision the Mayor being the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the city and the City Administrator being the Chief Operating Officer (COO). The Mayor would be the person providing their vision for the City and the City Administrator would be the one overseeing the operations.

In addition, since the City Administrator would be a city employee (not an elected official), it would also add consistency to the operations should there be turnover in the Mayor position.

This is a model that has proven to be very successful in other communities throughout the US. I strongly support Mayor Reynolds' recommendation in adding this position.

Hello,

I'm writing to express my support of the proposal to create a City Administrator position for the City of La Crosse.

An administrator would bring more clarity and oversight to day-to-day processes. The person hired could effectively delegate and execute on Council's policies. This is an exciting prospect for taxpayers, local businesses, nonprofit agencies, and others who rely on a strong local government.

In both personal and professional situations, I've been frustrated by a lack of cross-departmental communication, clear over-burdening of city staff, and avoidable inefficiencies within La Crosse's city government. It's concerning to see all the missed opportunities and miscommunication. Many city staff I interact with fully acknowledge the gaps. I am confident the cost of hiring a City Administrator would immediately be offset by more efficient use of staff (and taxpayer) time and resources.

La Crosse must step up and join the ranks of municipalities across Wisconsin and throughout the nation that understand local government must be run efficiently, effectively, and transparently--and that it takes a talented executive to make that happen. Thank you for considering this proposal and reading my comments.

Thanks,
Natalie Heneghan

Mayor Reynolds and Common Council,

I am writing to express my strong support for the creation of the City Administrator position in La Crosse.

As I mentioned during the J&A meeting last week, I fully endorse this initiative. Since Mayor Reynolds first brought up the idea in his State of the City address last January, I've been giving it a lot of thought. Initially, I was unsure, as I hadn't heard much about the role before. But the more I learned, the more it made sense. It's a smart, practical solution for a city like ours. Frankly, it was surprising to realize that we don't already have a "COO" type role. As I've come to understand the broad and nearly impossible responsibilities currently placed on the Mayor, it makes me wonder why we've waited so long to act.

Reading our comprehensive plan fills me with excitement for what this wonderful city can grow into. But if we truly want to reach that vision, we need to be serious about how we manage our operations now. I believe the best way to set us up for future success is by bringing in a City Administrator as soon as possible.

I understand the concerns about adding expenses to an already tight budget. For a moment, that gave me pause as well. But then I realized that part of the reason we're facing these budget challenges is due to short-term thinking and decision-making. This budget situation should serve as a wake-up call—an opportunity to bring on a City Administrator who can help us plan for the long term and manage our human, financial, and capital resources more effectively in the face of difficult headwinds.

I appreciate that La Crosse isn't breaking new ground with this discussion. The City Administrator role has been successfully implemented in municipalities across Wisconsin.

Looking ahead to the next mayoral election, I've been considering the difficult decision that city residents will have to make. On one hand, voters are looking for a mayor with a clear vision for the city's future in a shifting political environment. On the other hand, the role requires someone capable of managing the day-to-day operations of the city. It's almost impossible for voters to assess whether a prospective mayor would excel as a "COO" without the kind of thorough interview process and reference checks you'd expect for such a role. We need to separate these two functions.

In conclusion, I want what is best for La Crosse, and I firmly believe that creating a City Administrator position is the best path forward for our city.

Respectfully,
Andrew Ericson
La Crosse

Given the opportunity to express my opinion I am not in favor of a proposed City Administrator. This is a waste of City financial resources (Tax payers dollars). This is taking away powers of the City residents that have a right to vote in a mayor that needs to do his or her job, which is both to act as a political figure and as an administrator.

To all council members please do not vote in favor of the City Administrator position.

Dear La Crosse City Council,

I am writing to express my disappointment and disapproval of your recent decision to defer the City Administrator position decision until next May. This decision undermines the efficient and effective governance of our city and goes against the best interest of our community. I watched last night's Common Council meeting and anxiously awaited to hear how council would vote.

As I could infer from the guidance the city's attorney provided to you, it was advised any deferral past December 1st, 2024, meant any decision made would not take effect until after the next mayoral term. This means the citizens must wait 4.5 years if majority of council approves.

I am particularly taken back by your indecision and indecisiveness. The primary argument was the citizens did not express their opinion. The secondary argument was a 20+ year discussion was moving too fast. Understand, we the citizens don't always understand nor care to know the inner-workings of government. Instead, we elect persons to make the decisions that are best for a citizen's city government. We may always take to social media to complain about a decision, but we never do our due diligence to understand a decision. But perhaps worse is when councilpersons incorrectly assume they are just like any ordinary citizen and can throw up their hands and say "I don't understand what's going on; this is moving too fast". You have your government and council subcommittees at your disposal.

As a nation, we are entering an era that shifts to a new generation which means a rapidly changing world. Deep investments in infrastructure and the economy will become paramount for the United States and has been underway. The council must be stewards to put in place frameworks that ensure their government performs at its best. We cannot afford to delay decisions and be paralyzed by indecisiveness. Unfortunately to all, that indecisiveness is what the majority of council voted for tonight.

Thanks,

Westley Wamsley

Hello:

We are opposed to the hiring of a City Administrator for the following reasons:

1. It creates another paid government position for a job that should already be done by the Mayor and current staff of employees.
2. It provides a powerful leadership position that the citizens of La Crosse do not vote on. Thus we cannot vote the person out, like we can the Mayor and City Council.
3. The City of La Crosse is not much larger than it was in 1940 (about 42,000), but our administrative staff is much larger.

Good morning Council Members,

I'm writing to you to urge you as a body to refer the City Administrator legislation. I realize the pros and cons to the position creation, however I don't believe the tax payers are as well informed as they should be. During this referral time period several Public engagement sessions can be held throughout the City. In addition to public engagement sessions this should again be put to referendum, once the public has been educated. This significant change in government structure should be decided on by the people of La Crosse as they will ultimately foot the bill.

Thank you for your service,

Dear Councilmembers,

First off, thank you all for your thoughtful dedicated service to the City of La Crosse.

I am writing to express my support for moving forward to hire a city administrator. I remember hearing about this idea four or five years ago and I thought, and still do think, that it makes a lot of sense for a city of La Crosse's size and complexity to have a position like this. This is, however, my first time writing to you to express this view. I understand you have been and still are interested in public input on this matter and so here I am speaking up.

Personally, I am strongly in favor of the idea of hiring a city administrator. I see this role as an important support for the mayor and the other city leaders who are stretched thin. We need these people doing the jobs they are there to do, not an administrator job that could be more efficiently and effectively handled by an individual hired for that purpose. As I'm sure employees in many other sectors can attest, constantly trying to "do more with less" eventually results in getting less, and that is not good enough for me when it comes to our city. The other people working hard on behalf of the city deserve to have a full team to support them and coordinate their efforts for optimal payoff and I am excited to see what a city administrator could do for us in terms of positive change.

I understand that an issue currently before you is whether to pause for further input from the public. While commendable, that endless desire for more input can function as a stalling tactic. I first heard about this idea years ago, and the working group has gathered information from those most impacted. I elected you to make informed decisions on my behalf, and I believe you should all feel empowered to represent residents of the city and make decisions to move us forward without unnecessary delay.

Sincerely,

Grace Deason

City Administrator Position

Employee view

Good morning,

As an employee of the City of La Crosse, I would like my view to be read and considered when the decision is made whether to move forward with the City Administrator position.

I have been with the City of La Crosse, beginning in a temp role in 2014 and transitioning to a full-time hire in 2016, and see many reasons why this position would be a benefit to the City residents and employees.

I do want to state that I am not a City of La Crosse taxpayer as I live outside City limits, however, I did grow up on the Northside of La Crosse and my family still resides within City limits.

I believe the position should be added specifically to hold Department Heads accountable for their actions and decisions. It puzzles me as to why they are not held to a specific standard already. Sure, are they supposed to be? Yes. But are they? Absolutely not.

When I hear Department Heads telling their Superintendents and Managers that they can do “whatever they want with their budget”, it infuriates me. It is not the department’s budget to do whatever they want to do; it is the taxpayers’ budget, and the City is responsible for ensuring the money is used wisely with the money being spent directly benefiting those that pay into it.

A question I have is when can Departments go ahead with projects within their department that are to “benefit” the employees, with funds used from utility bills or taxpayer funds, without approval or support from the Human Resources Director? Or approval from the taxpayers themselves? Or the City Council? A City Administrator would be able to review these items and approve them as they see fit.

Frivolous spending on the Department Heads part is why the City of La Crosse is always looking to make cuts. The money is not ours. It is not theirs. It is the taxpayer’s money.

Employees are consistently told from their superiors that their “hands are tied” when inquiring for higher pay or a reclassification in their position. However, behind closed doors and slid through to the Council for approval, they are reclassifying their own positions, receiving higher pay and taking more money from taxpayers while at the same time delegating more and more of their work out to the people they manage. “Low-level” employees should have the same considerations as management when they try to “better” themselves. A City Administrator would be able to oversee these reclassifications without bias.

The City Council approves based on Department Heads and Management recommendations. They do not ask for employee input. And if they do, employees are not made aware of that. Again, a City Administrator would be able to oversee these recommendations without bias.

One last comment, if the City Administrator position is to be adopted, the position should be hired from outside of the current employment pool. If the City were to hire from within, there would be no change. The “good ole boys” club would continue. The same people would be making the same detrimental decisions, just being paid more and having more power.

An outside perspective is exactly what the City of La Crosse needs. It is obvious to me that how we are doing business now, is not working, on the employee front or for the residents.

I very much enjoy my position with the City of La Crosse and am one of the few that welcome change. I believe that a City Administrator would not only benefit the residents but the employees as well.

Thank you for your time.

Dear Council Members,

I was shocked to learn last week at a Housing Week event last week that the city of La Crosse does not have a city administrator. I recently moved from a town in Michigan of 3,000 which had both a mayor and administrator and the smaller neighboring town of 2,000 had this position as well. I feel it is unreasonable for a city the size of La Crosse to expect the mayor to function as the administrator. Having an administrator would allow for continuity of city programs and projects as new mayors enter the office. I feel that too much time is spent training mayors to fill this role when an administrator could manage city staff with approvals coming from the mayor. I urge you to support the creation of this position for the city. Thank you,

Hello La Crosse City Council Members,

Thank you for your service on the council. It is my understanding that topic of a city administrator position will once again be considered this week and I'm writing as a resident of La Crosse to share my support for the creation of a city administrator position. A professional, experienced city administrator who can execute a strategic vision for the city in a cohesive manner across mayoral terms would be a significant benefit for our city. It is my understanding that many cities the size of La Crosse employ administrators and, given the complexities of our city, it seems prudent that we invest in the capacity of our city leadership.

Thanks again for your time and dedication on behalf of our community!

Hello Council Members,

I live at 515 23rd St S, La Crosse WI 54601. Before my husband and I moved to La Crosse, we lived in River Falls, a city with a City Administrator. As a City employee, it felt like City staff were proud to do their jobs and that the City was able to accomplish a lot, across all departments. I think that we need to stop wasting time and make this investment in experienced and capable leadership for La Crosse. I can see the possibilities and they are awesome. Please stop pushing this decision back and bring in a City Administrator.

Hello there,

I wanted to share a couple of sentiments that I have regarding the city administrator issue that will be coming up again soon. I would like to see this item explored at this time and not pushed down the line for future review again.

Additionally, I would like to express my support for the city administrator position being implemented if we can find a way to fund it in a sustainable manner. In times when budgets are tight and there are complex decisions on the table, I would love to see a professional in this role with all of the experience necessary to make challenging decisions.

Thank you for the work you do!

Best,

I think the position of City Administrator should be put to a referendum. It's way too contentious to be left to council alone.

My only concern with doing that is making sure the people know what they're voting for exactly. (I have ideas, but those of you who know me know that of course I would have ideas.)

Good Afternoon Members of the Common Council –

My name is Bob Gollnik, Executive Director of the La Crosse Area Planning Committee (LAPC), and a transportation planner/project manager with over 20 years of experience working across the United States. Our agency focuses on regional transportation planning for the La Crosse-La Crescent area, with the City of La Crosse as our largest member. In some ways we serve as a de facto “Council of Governments” for the communities surrounding the City of La Crosse. Our policy board consists of the highest elected officials from 10 area member communities and the La Crosse County Board Chair. We also have two committees that involve multiple City of La Crosse technical staff.

Last fall, I shared a version of the information below, and I believe this issue remains just as important as you consider the next steps for the City Administrator, City Manager, or Chief of Staff role. Since becoming Executive Director of the LAPC in 2023, I had the privilege of working with Mayor Reynolds, who was an excellent partner and supported many productive conversations that advanced our regional planning work. In recent months, his leadership underscored the value of having a professional city management structure in place—regardless of who is in office. I look forward to building a similar partnership with Mayor Washington-Spivey, and I believe the need for this role is more urgent than ever. A City Administrator, City Manager, or Chief of Staff could help La Crosse meet future demands, improve service delivery, and boost coordination and effectiveness across departments.

Cities of La Crosse’s size—and even smaller municipalities—commonly have this role to ensure consistent, effective governance. While many points have been outlined for the council, I would like to emphasize a few key areas most relevant to our work and the benefits a City Administrator/City Manager/Chief of Staff could bring to La Crosse’s growth and development:

- Experienced Professional Leadership and Stability: The right city administrator will bring professional experience to help La Crosse grow in a smart and sustainable way—especially when balancing natural resources like the Mississippi River with development. They also provide consistency across departments and outside partnerships, even when elected officials change.
- Smart and Efficient Use of Resources: Administrators are tasked with making the most of public funds. La Crosse could benefit from someone who can manage tax dollars, grants, budgets, and resources wisely—especially for projects like infrastructure, housing, and public safety.
- Follow-Through on Plans: La Crosse has a history of big goals, like improving the riverfront and expanding transit. A city administrator could help make sure these plans move forward efficiently and stay on track with the city’s long-term vision.

- Managing Daily Operations: Running a city like La Crosse—with its transportation and public safety needs, housing issues, and busy tourism scene—requires full-time attention. A city administrator would handle daily operations so the mayor and council can focus on big-picture policy, long-term vision, and engaging with the community.
- Planning for the Future: Ideally, a city administrator will help La Crosse grow thoughtfully—supporting economic development, affordable housing, environmental goals, tourism, and quality of life for residents.
- Non-Partisan Leadership: Effective city administrators work well across political lines. Their focus is on what’s best for the community, not politics. They also help new mayors and council members get up to speed, which keeps city work moving smoothly.
- Helping the Council Do Its Job: With a city administrator handling budgets, staff, and operations, the city council can focus on making laws, listening to residents, and setting priorities.
- Handling Emergencies and Crisis Management: Whether it’s flooding, economic challenges, or major community events, city administrators are great at leading quick, organized responses, leadership helps keep people and businesses safe.
- Connecting with the Community: Administrators in other places have helped strengthen the connection between city government and the people it serves. La Crosse could benefit from someone who ensures community voices are heard and used to guide decisions.
- Improved Accountability: Because city administrators answer to the council and public, they help ensure city departments meet goals and operate transparently. This builds trust and keeps city services on track.

I believe the role of a City Administrator (or a variety of) would significantly enhance La Crosse’s governance, providing stability and professional management to address the city’s current and future needs while expanding collaborative opportunities with regional partners like us.

Please contact me if any of you would like to discuss further, and I strongly encourage you to consider this important initiative sooner than later.

Sincerely,

Bob Gollnik

The City Administrator Charter Ordinance proposal should be delayed for two months, and modified slightly.

A delay is needed because there have not been public input sessions/town halls on this topic. These are necessary because this is a very major and contentious issue. I believe that having these will clarify what the administrator will do, explain how it will make the city run more efficiently, and show how it can end up saving more than it costs. Delaying until February is unnecessary, so I suggest two months. This will make everyone a lot happier with the decision.

Second, I would like to see the consideration of a modification to the ordinance. Section III states:

"This charter ordinance specifically removes those duties from the Office of Mayor to oversee the day-to-day operations, management and administration of the City of La Crosse that are found under § 62.09 (8) (a), Wis. Stat. Any charter provision or any previously enacted ordinance or charter ordinance inconsistent or in conflict with this ordinance is expressly repealed."

Wis. Stats. § 62.09(8)(a) states:

"The mayor shall be the chief executive officer. The mayor shall take care that city ordinances and state laws are observed and enforced and that all city officers and employees discharge their duties."

(§ 62.09(8)(b) through (e) state the Mayor's other official duties)

I don't believe it's necessary to transfer the statutory powers granted by § 62.09(8)(a), and I think the right thing to do would be to either eliminate this section or change it to say something like "When not overruled by the Mayor, the Administrator will oversee the day-to-day operations, management, and administration of the City of La Crosse as stated under § 62.09 (8) (a), Wis. Stat."

One of the concerns that many residents have about the Administrator proposal is that it puts another unelected bureaucrat in between the people and their government. The Administrator will be a de facto lifetime appointment with very little chance of removal except for outrageous misconduct; merely being disappointing will probably not be enough cause for removal.

With this change, I believe that the normal dynamic on a day-to-day basis would be indistinguishable from if the statutory power was transferred - the Administrator would still carry out the administrative role as envisioned - but it would ease the minds of many city residents, myself included, to know that the elected Mayor would retain the option to overrule the Administrator if he or she felt it was absolutely necessary. It would not surprise me if this never happens in any of our lifetimes, but just keeping the option would be healthy for democracy.

Also, unless I'm not seeing it, there doesn't seem to be a provision for city administration when the Administrator is unexpectedly absent. Having the administrative powers be in the hands of two people would allow them to cover for each other when necessary.

Finally, I suspect that the transfer of statutory powers is what makes this a Charter Ordinance, although I'm not certain about that; this would be a question for the City Attorney. If that's the case, then keeping the mayoral powers intact could potentially reduce the number of votes needed to approve the Administrator and preclude the possibility of a costly and time-wasting referendum on it. A few town halls and a tweak to Section III would dramatically ease this proposal along.

Good Afternoon,

As a resident of the city of La Crosse, I urge you to move forward in supporting a plan for a city administrator. La Crosse needs a professional person who can help us move toward the planning goals that were previously adopted.

Housing is a crucial issue in La Crosse that impacts residents, students, businesses and future growth. A city administrator would provide consistency in dealing with zoning and developers. Our city is large enough to benefit from a professional administrator that won't be impacted by changes in the mayoral or council seats.

Thanks for your consideration.

Hello City Council Members,

I'm writing to share my support for a City Administrator and ask you to work toward achieving this in a timely manner without continuing to push off the decision. Having a City Administrator will provide more direct accountability for the day-to-day operations for all parties. Based on my professional experience with projects that involve more than one department, there is ample opportunity for cost savings and helping the City to move in a more unified direction. In my eyes, this position is not one that oversteps on the role of mayor but instead elevates the work of that role. Many surrounding communities have seen wonderful success and huge economic development because they are properly staffed. I encourage you to invest in our community with the addition of a City Administrator.

Dear City Council,

I encourage you to vote "yes" to hire a City Administrator. This position could bring consistency to the city that we have been lacking for many years. Council members come and go, mayors come and go and we need someone who can provide consistent oversight and leadership to our fine city.

While I have heard plenty of concerns about the expense of this position, I feel this would be money well spent. And in the long run would more than likely end of saving the city money.

Please support this position for all of us!

To Whom It May Concern,

Please accept this letter in support of the charter ordinance to create section 19 of Appendix A of the Code of Ordinances of the City of La Crosse creating the position, duties and responsibilities of the Office of the City Administrator and removing duties from the Office of the Mayor.

Many of the core issues our community faces—both the challenges and the opportunities—are long-term issues. These are conditions we will face for decades, not months or even years. A community our size needs operational guidance and certainty to advance addressing these issues as directed by the elected Council and the Mayor. The creation of a City Administrator position would allow for continuity in daily operations of the city and would bring expertise and professional training in the operations of critical services in local government including emergency services, public safety, intergovernmental relations, and community development. A City Administrator has the potential to further the efficiency and effectiveness of services in the City of La Crosse, allowing for continued leadership in the region and beyond. La Crosse is poised to continue its rise as a premier community in the Upper Midwest. Implementing a full-time City Administrator will help advance that rise, allowing our elected leaders to focus on vision and policy while the Administrator manages operations. This will help city government be even more responsive to all citizens.

Gundersen Health System—becoming Emplify Health—experiences firsthand many ways municipal services and operations of the City of La Crosse impact our patients, staff, and the community. I appreciate your thoughtful attention to this request and ask you to support and advance this proposal. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Good Afternoon,

I am a La Crosse city resident, and learned the Council deferred the decision on the above position in order to elicit public comment. What specific initiatives are planned by the Council to hear from the public? It would seem that the election of the mayoral candidate who voiced support for the city administrator position would be a strong indication of public support.

I look forward to your response.

Both my husband Tom and myself would prefer a city administrator to decrease the upheaval during a newly elected mayor term, thus providing consistency and reporting to the council not the mayor. The Mayor position would then be a LESS than full time position, the admin staff for the mayor currently could be shared with the newly hired city administrator.

questions?? We do not understand why a mayor would need an operation director, what would be this role consist of? and then what would the mayor's role become? Why hire someone who would be removed from office with each election cycle?

Thank you Karen and Tom Briggs, concerned city residents
