I am in the process of purchasing the home on this property. It was all one lot. The current owner split the property for negotiating reasons.

I am wanting the lot line extended as part of our purchase agreement. The current owner/seller asked I take care of the Log works. The proposed lot line went through a fountain on the homes for sale lot line & they originally wanted the shed also. After negotiating, we agreed to move the lot to include the shed & extend the remainder 10'
