Chris,
Thanks. Also, for what it is worth, we support the proposed changes in the camping statutes. I hope that, plus the security helps the farmer's market. It was in a great location and such a popular place to go. The park itself has become an eyesore. It is on a main road through town and leaves a bad impression on people driving through. People at work that commute into LaCrosse have commented on it. They also talk about the increased number of homeless downtown. It feels like the good intentions in LaCrosse have made it a destination for the homeless. The camping change would be a step in the right direction.
Andrew
