Mr, Reinhart and Committee,

Thank you for your inquiry regarding my appeal..

1. During January there were frequent snowfalls . I have an agreement with someone who has been prompt in clearing all of my walks and my driveway as well.

I am handicapped to the point I am unable to do it myself . I suspect my helper from time to time gets overwhelmed with the frequency of me and his other customers. Nevertheless I think I have shown that I am responsible enough to attempt to comply with the ordinance and keep the walks clear. Failure on this occasion should deserve mitigation, if not dismissal of the alleged violation.

2. The record I have from my helper shows an invoice to me of clearing my walks and drive January 24th , the same date as the alleged violation.
3. My contractor does my walks and driveway for $25.00 per incident . The city's charge is far in excess or reason. I understand that the charges set forth in the ordinance will remain until this issue is resolved by the Counsel in due course. Nevertheless I object to it

Respectfully,

Burleigh Randolph
