- Sec. 115-143(c)(2) Front Yards. On every lot in the Residence District, there shall be a front yard having a depth of not less than 25 feet, provided that where lots comprising 40 percent or more of the frontage on one side of a block are developed with buildings, the required front yard depth shall be the average of the front yard depths of the two adjacent main buildings.
- Two separate variances would need to be granted for the new Single-Family Dwelling to proceed as proposed. A variance of 9 feet for the fill requirement and 2.75 feet for the required front yard setback.

Front yard setback variance.

- Unnecessary Hardship. There is no unnecessary hardship as the dwelling could be moved back to meet the setback and still meet all other Municipal code requirements.
- Hardship Due to Unique Property Limitations. There are no unique property limitations as this lot is the same size as the other lots in this area.
- No Harm to Public Interests. No harm to the public interest.

This variance should not be granted.

Fill variance.

- Unnecessary Hardship. The property cannot be developed because it is in the floodplain if the proper fill cannot be provided.
- Hardship Due to Unique Property Limitations. The size of the lot doesn't allow for the required fill.
- No Harm to Public Interests. There is no harm to the public interest.

This variance should be granted.

- The applicant has applied for a permit to put an addition onto a Single-Family Dwelling that does not meet the required front yard setback.
- Municipal Code Sec. 115-143(2) Front Yards. On every lot in the Residence District, there shall be a front yard having a depth of not less than 25 feet, provided that where lots comprising 40 percent or more of the frontage on one side of a block are developed with buildings, the required front yard depth shall be the average of the front yard depths of the two adjacent main buildings.
- The two adjacent main buildings are setback over 25 feet.
- A variance of 12.5 feet would need to be granted for this project to proceed as proposed.
