RE: An appeal regarding the requirement allowing only 29 multi-family apartment units at 425 West Ave N La Crosse, WI 54601.

Dear Marvin Wanders,

We have received the permit application to construct a new 48-unit multi-family apartment building at 425 West Ave N La Crosse, WI. The project does not meet the requirements set forth in the Municipal Code of Ordinances of the City of La Crosse regarding development density for development in Traditional neighborhood development zoning. The project proposed is in direct violation of the following subparagraph of the Code:

Sec. 115-403 – Traditional neighborhood development. (2) Development Density. The number of residential dwelling units and the amount of nonresidential development (excluding open spaces) shall be determined as follows:

a. The number of single-family attached and detached units permitted shall be four—15 dwelling units per net acre.

b. The number of multi-family units shall be 15—40 dwelling units per net acre.

c. Secondary dwelling units are calculated into the dwelling's units per acre as stated above.

d. All dwelling units constructed above commercial uses shall be permissible in addition to the number of dwelling units authorized under this section. However, the total number of dwelling units shall not be increased by more than ten dwelling units or ten percent, whichever is greater.

Therefore, if upon consideration of all of the facts surrounding this appeal in a public hearing, the Board of Zoning Appeals determines that this appeal meets all of the criteria established by the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin for the granting of variances, the Board of Zoning Appeals would have to grant a variance allowing 19 additional apartment units on a .73 acre development for this project to proceed as proposed.

Sincerely,

Andy Berzinski

Building Inspector

Board of Zoning Appeals Standards

The Board of Zoning Appeals functions like a court, and must follow State laws and local zoning ordinances. The Board of Zoning Appeals cannot change or ignore any part of the zoning ordinance or State laws, but must apply the laws as written.

The Board may only grant a variance, special exception, or administrative appeal if the applicant provides evidence showing that they meet all of the legal standards for that decision. The burden of proof falls on the variance applicant, not the Board of Zoning Appeals. The legal standards the Board will use to decide on each application are shown below.

STANDARDS FOR USE or AREA VARIANCE

- ☐ 1. The proposed variance is not contrary to the public interest. The purpose statement of the ordinance and related statutes must be reviewed in order to identify the public interest. Variances must observe the spirit of the ordinance, secure public safety and welfare, and do substantial justice. In considering effects of a variance on public interests, broad community and even statewide interests should be examined; the public interest standard is not confined to scrutiny of impacts on neighbors or residents in the vicinity of the project.
- ☐ 2. The property has a special or unique condition. The property must have unique or physical features which prevent compliance with the ordinance. The circumstances of an applicant, such as growing family or need for a larger garage, are not legitimate factors in meeting this standard. Property limitations that prevent ordinance compliance that are not unique but common to a number of properties should be addressed by amendment of the ordinance.
- ☐ 3. The special condition of the property creates an unnecessary hardship:
 - a. Unnecessary hardship means unnecessarily burdensome, considering the purpose of the ordinance.
 - b. Unnecessary hardship may not be self-created. An applicant may not claim hardship because of conditions which are self-imposed. Examples include claiming hardship for a substandard lot after having sold off portions that would have allowed building in compliance or claiming hardship where construction was commenced without required permits in violation of ordinance standards.
 - c. Financial hardship is not a deciding factor. Economic loss or financial hardship does not justify a variance.

You may contact your neighbors and share your proposal with them so they are aware.
