I am asking the COMMON COUNCIL to reject the proposed ordinance Sec. 32-191 as a violation of freedom of speech, freedom of religion, and as an attack on the family and parental rights.

The ordinance ignores the fact that many who have been accepted, supported, and assisted in gender "transitioning" go on to regret the change, often after it is irreversible. It also sets in motion dynamics that impact others in harmful ways not accounted for in the proposed ordinance. (see article and references below)

Thank you for your sincere consideration.
