Hello, My name is Melanie Schaller, I live and have children in the city of La Crosse.

I am very uncomfortable with any government ban on counselors from speaking to a child about their sexual identity of preferences. This issue is between the parents and the child and any counselor they may seek help from. The government has no business banning possible conversations amongst a certified counselor and their clients.

The local government has plenty of other issues that need attention. This is unnecessary!

Thank you for your time,

Melanie Schaller
