The South Branch Library is a beautiful piece of LaCrosse history and one of a kind unique building. It's a shame to disregard something that is not replaceable in favor of putting up more cheap housing and decreasing the value of this neighborhood. This building is located next to the only park in HT-L NA. There were some wonderful options to reuse the building in its present state and grounds. Think of what you would want to live by. We standby support of keeping the South Branch Library as a historic landmark.
