12/23/2022	Allow Underage in Bar 4-7	Didn't appear for court date

On December 23, 2022 at 11:49pm, an anonymous report of four to five underage females were in a bar, one wearing pink. Officer made contact with the female in pink along with her friend, they were identified and both were 16 years old. One stated she entered the bar and wasn't carded and advised that someone else in the bar purchased a long island ice tea for her to drink at the bar. Neither were found to have any identification cards. The bouncer advised that he carded everyone and that the two girls showed ID. The manager, Elyse Burkhardt, stated she only served on of them water and that she will check their security footage to see if they were carded. Elyse was cited and released.
