Re: City of La Crosse Human Rights Commission
Complaint of Hannah Eitland

Heather Johnson.

At its meeting on April 10, 2024, the Human Rights Commission found that the complaint of Hannah Eitland alleges sufficient facts with reason to believe that discrimination may have been committed.

This is to advise that according to Municipal Code sec. 22-24(f)(3), you have twenty (20) business days from receipt of this notice to file and serve a written response. Such written response shall be served upon the complainant Hannah Eitland and the City Clerk.

For further information, the La Crosse Municipal Code of Ordinances relating to Human Rights, Article II – Discrimination in Housing, Use of City Facilities and Public Accommodations, can be found at www.cityoflacrosse.org.

Regards,

Nikki M. Elsen, WCMC
City Clerk
