

The event is called Creative Kids for a Cause: Driftless Region Art Showcase. We'll be taking art submissions from kids in the community and creating an art exhibit / showcase of them. We'll be charging the public an entry fee to come and see them and vote on their favorites.

All funds raised will go toward our family's adoption fund, just like the kids carnival last year did.