

I am a volunteer coach for 906 Adventure Camp and would love to see Birch opened for biking. I coach the little ones, the five year olds and we are limited on available trails for this age. Birch is near perfect for the younger kids learning. It's a great trail to introduce them to mountain biking!

Janice Schreier